Introduction

The present checklist is not a catalogue, but rather is a checklist intended to serve as a guide to sources of up-to-date cataloging, textual and codicological description, and digital images for western medieval, Byzantine, and Renaissance manuscripts in the Princeton University Library and the Scheide Library. Manuscripts are listed by holding unit, collection, and manuscript number or shelfmark. Links are given for more than well over 2,000 digital images of miniatures, illustrations, and selected diagrams and decoration in the manuscripts, about a third of which are illuminated. In addition, links are provided for digitized grayscale microfilm of a large number of Middle English manuscripts at Princeton and for a group of important manuscripts digitized in the Library since the 1990s. For additional information about the holdings of the Manuscripts Division and to make appointments, potential researchers should contact Don C. Skemer, Curator of Manuscripts, at dcskemer@princeton.edu. For information about holdings of the Scheide Library, please contact Paul Needham, Librarian, at needham@princeton.edu. For information concerning photoduplication and permission to publish and/or broadcast, please send an email to rbsc@princeton.edu. A brief overview of the manuscripts and their cataloging follows.

Most of the manuscripts are in the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections, including 172 in the Robert Garrett Collection, 58 in the Grenville Kane Collection, 21 in the Robert Taylor Collection, and more than 200 in the growing Princeton Collection of Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts. Also found in these collections are more than 250 separate miniatures, leaves, and cuttings. There are 8 in the Cotsen Children's Library; a small number of other manuscripts in other manuscript series or bound with printed books. Scheide Library holdings are also listed. Princeton's manuscripts range in date from the 8th to 16th centuries. While Latin texts are predominant, there are excellent holdings of Byzantine and post-Byzantine Greek manuscripts, and vernacular manuscripts in Middle English, French, Italian, Spanish, German, and Dutch or Flemish. About 150 of the manuscripts are illustrated, accounting for about 1,750 miniatures, historiated initials, and other significant examples of manuscript illustration. In addition to codices, there are thousands of documents in the John Hinsdale Scheide Collection (Italian, French, English), Ernest Cushing Richardson Collection (Italian), and Charles Carroll Marden Collection (Spanish) and other collections in the Manuscript Division.

Two recently published catalogues provide full textual and codicological description of western medieval, Byzantine, and Renaissance manuscripts, illustrated with hundreds of color plates:

(1) Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts in the Princeton University Library. By Don C. Skemer; incorporating contributions by Adelaide Bennett, Jean F. Preston, William P. Stoneman and the Index of Christian Art (Princeton, N.J.: Department of Art and Archaeology and the Princeton University Library, in association with Princeton University Press, 2013). 2 volumes (I: xxv, 483 pages, 88 pages of plates; II: xix, 558 pages, 40 pages of plates): color illustrations; 30 cm: <http://press.princeton.edu/titles/10015.html> This catalogue covers the holdings of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections

(2) Greek Manuscripts at Princeton, Sixth to Nineteenth Century: A Descriptive Catalogue. By Sofia Kotzabassi and Nancy Patterson Ševčenko; with the collaboration of Don C. Skemer (Princeton, N.J.: Department of Art and Archaeology and Program in Hellenic Studies, Princeton University, in association with Princeton University Press, 2010). xxix, 304 p., [174] p. of plates of color and black-and-white plates; 31 cm: <http://press.princeton.edu/titles/9055.html> This catalogue covers the holdings of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections, The Scheide Library, Princeton University Art Museum, and Princeton Theological Seminary.

Links to most digital images in this Checklist are point to the Index of Christian Art, which follows naming conventions that indicate what the image covers (whole page, top half, bottom half, details) . These images are also available in ARTstor. The Department of Rare Books and Special Collections digital files, slides, transparencies, and other forms of photoduplication for these manuscripts. Photoduplication is readily available. For conservation reasons, use of several manuscripts in the Manuscripts Division and the Scheide Library are restricted.
