INTRODUCTION

The present checklist is not a catalogue, but rather a 96-page updatable checklist intended to serve as a guide to available cataloging, textual and codicological descriptions, and digital images for western medieval, Byzantine, and Renaissance manuscripts in the Princeton University Library, including the Scheide Library, whose bequest to Princeton was announced in February 2015. Manuscripts are listed by holding unit, collection, and manuscript number or shelfmark. Links are given for more than well over 2,000 digital images of miniatures, illustrations, and selected diagrams and decoration in the manuscripts, about a third of which are illuminated. In addition, links are provided for digitized grayscale microfilm of a large number of Middle English manuscripts at Princeton and for a group of important manuscripts digitized in the Library since the 1990s and now part of the Princeton University Digital Library (PUDL). For more information about the holdings of the Manuscripts Division or make appointments, potential researchers should contact Don C. Skemer, Curator of Manuscripts, at dcskemer@princeton.edu. For information about holdings of the Scheide Library, please contact Paul Needham, Scheide Librarian, at needham@princeton.edu. For information concerning photoduplication and permission to publish and/or broadcast, please send an email to rbsc@princeton.edu.

There are upwards of 600 medieval, Byzantine, and Renaissance manuscripts in the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections. The largest number are in the Manuscripts Division, including 172 in the Robert Garrett Collection, 58 in the Grenville Kane Collection, 21 in the Robert Taylor Collection, and more than 230 in the Princeton Collection of Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts—an open, growing collection. Also found in these collections are more than 250 separate miniatures, leaves, and cuttings. The Scheide Library has approximately 100 manuscripts. There are also 8 in the Cotsen Children's Library; and a small number of other manuscripts in other manuscript series or bound with printed books. Princeton's holdings range in date from the 8th to 16th centuries. While Latin texts are predominant, there are excellent holdings of Byzantine and post-Byzantine Greek manuscripts, and vernacular manuscripts in Middle English, French, Italian, Spanish, German, and Dutch or Flemish. About 175 of the manuscripts are illustrated, accounting for about 2,000 miniatures, historiated initials, and other significant examples of manuscript illustration. In addition to codices, there are thousands of documents in the Manuscripts Division, chiefly in the John Hinsdale Scheide Collection (C0704); the Ernest Cushing Richardson Collection (C0341); and the Charles Carroll Marden Collection of Spanish Documents (C0279). The Bruce C. Willsie Collection of British Sigillography (C0953) includes English charters, royal seals, and seal matrices.

Two recently published catalogues provide full textual and codicological description of western medieval, Byzantine, and Renaissance manuscripts, illustrated with hundreds of color plates:

(1) Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts in the Princeton University Library. By Don C. Skemer; incorporating contributions by Adelaide Bennett, Jean F. Preston, William P. Stoneman and the Index of Christian Art (Princeton, N.J.: Department of Art and Archaeology and the Princeton University Library, in association with Princeton University Press, 2013). 2 volumes (I: xxv, 483 pages, 88 pages of plates; II: xix, 558 pages, 40 pages of plates): color illustrations; 30 cm: <http://press.princeton.edu/titles/10015.html> This catalogue covers the holdings of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections

(2) Greek Manuscripts at Princeton, Sixth to Nineteenth Century: A Descriptive Catalogue. By Sofia Kotzabassi and Nancy Patterson Sevčenko; with the collaboration of Don C. Skemer (Princeton, N.J.: Department of Art and Archaeology and Program in Hellenic Studies, Princeton University, in association with Princeton University Press, 2010). xxix, 304 p., [174] p. of plates of color and black-and-white plates; 31 cm: <http://press.princeton.edu/titles/9055.html> This catalogue covers the holdings of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections, The Scheide Library, Princeton University Art Museum, and Princeton Theological Seminary.

Links to most digital images in this Checklist are point to the Index of Christian Art, which follows naming conventions that indicate what the image covers (whole page, top half, bottom half, details). These images are also available in ARTstor. The Department of Rare Books and Special Collections digital files, slides, transparencies, and other forms of photoduplication for these manuscripts. Photoduplication is readily available. For conservation reasons, use of several manuscripts in the Manuscripts Division and the Scheide Library is restricted.
